Especial attention given to Insurance of DWELLINGS and Contents, for terms of 1 to 5 years.

The progress of this Corporation has been stable and uninterrupted through seasons of financial sunshine and storm, or periods eventful in or exempt from sweeping conflagrations and maratime disaster. Being long established on a cash basis, the troubles of the credit systaonsided on a cash basis, the troubles of the creat sys-tem affect us in no material particular.

During "hard times" the security of reliable Insurance is an imperative duty—the ability of property owners to sustain loss being then much lessened.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

A T a meeting of the Board of Directors, at Frankfort for the New York Life Insurance Company, on Saturday, the 1st day of March, 1856, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"The undersigned, President and Directors of the tion was unanimously adopted:

"The undersigned, President and Directors of the Company, have examined the report and exhibits of the New York Life Insurance Company for the last year, embracing a full statement of its affairs, assets, &c. to the 1st of January, 1856, and being satisfied with the perfect sound condition of the Company, cordially recommend it to the encouragement and support of the whole community.

"It commenced its operations twelve years ago, with $50,000, which has accumulated to $1,059,008 65, principally invested in state stocks, and in bonds and mortgages, believed to be undoubtedly good.

"We know of no mode of investing money more profitably. The profits are mutual for the insured, and have averaged not less than thirty per cent. annually on the premium paid."

the following extract from a Democratic paper United States. published in this city.

"The present incumbent, who is regarded by his friends and party as the "model Keeper," and who, to do him justice, is a very active and energetic business man, has, up to the present, drawn $16,833 33 in cash out of the Treasury, not including the amount of the State loan to sion which its perusal will make on the public him of $10,000, and has paid in, all told, only mind, and hope that it will tend to allay morbid $7,740 98, including a portion of the interest he owes on the State loan. The Commonwealth has expended under three years of his term, upwards of twenty thousand dollars on the Prison."

It will require but a few words to refute these statements which are so well calculated to mislead the people, for whose eyes, and to influence whose votes, they are intended. We do not intend to denounce any one; it will satisfy us that the plain truth shall be made known.

In the first place, it is not true that Mr. Ward has drawn $16,833,33 from the Treasury, as Keeper of the Penitentiary, nor does he owe that much to the State. The Legislature of 1855-6 made an appropriation of $29,000 and the rent for the county of Franklin. due from the Penitentiary, from the 1st of March 1856 to the first of March 1858, amounting to $12,000, for the purpose of enlarging the area of ly, in a speech at Montgomery, Alabama, said ant, as that fact would prove a bar to the presthe Prison, erecting a new hospital and building that "he was a Whig, had always been a Whig, tions, the jury gave a verdict for the Sherift. or repairing cells. SPEECHES AND WRITINGS

-OF-

Hon. THOMAS F. MARSHALL OF KENTUCKY

THE above work contains about all of Mr. Marshall's finest efforts since 1832.

As a popular orator of unrivaled powers and a writer of unsurpassed ability Mr. Marshall stands foremost among the most prominent men of his day. The great reputation he has acquired, both as a speaker and a writer, his long and active identity with and complete knowledge of the political and social history of our country, have created a wide spread desire to see his numerous speeches and writings on various subjects, in a permanent form; and, to meet this desire and to add a valuable contribution to the standard literature of our own country, we have spared neither pains nor expense to prepare the work in the highest style of the art.

The literary taste and ability of the editor are sufficiently known and appreciated to require no remarks from

> PROSPECTUS OF THE

"CENTRAL KENTUCKIAN."

PUBLISHED IN LEBANON, KY.

Lebanon, since the completion of the Railroad, connecting it with Louisville, is a point of interest to a large section of country. There are hundreds of persons abroad who are in want of information upon various topics connected with it, such as the prices current, facilities for doing and having business done here, &c., and the citizens of Lebanon themselves, wish to inform the public at large, that it is one of the most enterprising and flourishing towns in the interior of the State, and that it offers great inducements as a place of residence to men of almost every honorable trade and profession. To supply these wants, of people abroad and citizens at home, we have determined to publish "The Central Kenuckian"—a gaper devoted to the Commercial, Agricultural, Literary, and Moral welfare of the community in which it is circulated.

It is hoped that we shall be able, by attention to the interest of all concerned, to supply a desideratum long felt.

Citizens of Lebanon, and of Marion and surrounding counties, to you, of whatever political party orreligious sects we look for support—and the more liberal that is, the larger and more entertaining will be our paper—for we are determined, if you will place in our hands the means, to make the Central Kentuckian worthy of your patronage.

To obtain this, however, we shall not sacrifice independence by pledging ourselves to any party or sect, yet we shall promise you Neutrality in Nothing. If we are not capable of choosing our subject matter, and of commenting upon all or any topic of public interest, in a manner which shall be at once courteous and inoffensive, we ought not to come before you as Editors. To be faithful journalists of passing events—candid critics of public acts—and successful advocates of Truth, is the hight of our ambition.

Terms:—$1.50 in advance; $2.00 in six months. No deduction made on clubs. Return the list of names as soon as possible, as we shall issue the first number on Wednesday, the 27th.

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE. N the town of MELBOURNE, Karnes county, Texas, being a new town site, recently laid off, on the Gov-rument road leading from Indianola to San Antonio, Yo-ktown; where said road crosses the main Cleto, niles from Yorktown and 45 miles from San Antonio, where the Gonzales and Seguin roads intersect and ss to Helena; also near where the San Antonio and vican Gulf Railroad, now being constructed, passes— surveyed.

as surveyed.)

It is one of the most desirable locations for an inland town, in Western Texas. The soil adjacent is good, water excellent. Lots on main street, 75 feet front, 150 feet back, are now offered at FIFTY DOLLARS per loback lots, same size, at TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS per lot.

The se who wish to commence business in a new town, or to double or treble their money, would do well by purchasing early, before the price of lots is raised. We will also sell the Tavern, known as the Gillock House, including the whole block upon which it stands.

Emigrants will find this to be as healthy and fertile a sociation of country as there is in almost any of the States. For further particulars call on us at our residence in MELBOURNE, or address us by letter, "Eclecto Post Office, Karnes county, Texas."
